

ice|north west

Institution of Civil Engineers

QUALIFIED TECHNICIANS FOR THE FUTURE OF YOUR BUSINESS

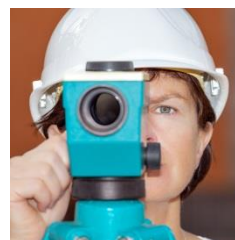

Qualified Technicians - why they make good business sense and removing the barriers to progress

Key address by Nick Baveystock, ICE Director General

16.00 – 19.00hrs, Wednesday 26 November 2014, BDP offices, Manchester

Symposium programme:

- The Need and Current Initiatives
Nick Baveystock, ICE
- Benefits to Employers
Richard Goodwin, Capita
- Advanced Apprenticeship Framework
Shelia Hoile, Technician Apprenticeship Consortium
- Value of Apprenticeships
Jane Saynor, Technician Apprenticeship Consortium
- Apprenticeship Training in the NW
John Whitby, STEGTA
- Further Education Opportunities and ICE support
Jeff Lawrenson, ICE
- View from Aspiring Technicians
- Discussion – Removing Obstacles

For further information contact: Jeff Lawrenson
t: 01744 616745 e: jeff.lawrenson@ice.org.uk

To book please email icenw@ice.org.uk

Venue
BDP, 11 Ducie Street,
Piccadilly Basin, Manchester M1 2JB

ice.org.uk/northwest